Investment objective

Dexus Core Property Fund (the Fund) aims to generate income and capital growth on a rolling 3-year basis by investing in Australasian and US unlisted real estate and Australasian and global listed real estate.

How we manage your money

The Fund provides access to unique investment opportunities that are otherwise difficult for an individual investor to obtain. The Fund is well diversified across a strategic mix of Australian unlisted and global listed real estate. It targets high quality unlisted assets which have high occupancy rates and stable income streams, complimented by a global listed portfolio that targets alternative real estate sectors that we believe will provide superior long term growth.

What happened last period

- During May, the Dexus Core Property Fund (DCPF or the Fund) experienced a strong positive return that was driven by the Fund's listed real estate portfolio. The unlisted exposure was stable from a valuation perspective and continues to contribute strong income returns.
- The listed component delivered a +2.0% return (before fees) in May. The largest sector contributors were industrial, data centres, healthcare and self-storage. The largest detractors were retail and office. In industrial, the largest contributor was Goodman Group, which is a beneficiary of the rise of e-commerce globally and is now making a considerable splash in the data centre sector through its pipeline of over 3.6GW of capacity, or 12% of the global data centre market.
- Within office, Mitsubishi Estate, which released good results in May, was amongst the largest detractors with profit taking by active managers likely to have contributed to selling of the stock during the period.
- We are increasingly positive about the medium-term prospects for most real estate sectors, due to a combination of declining net new supply, high occupancies and high margins. High interest rates remain a headwind to overall earnings growth, but most public REITs have well staggered debt maturities and minimal floating rate debt. Should rates be cut over the next six months, we believe that fresh capital will return to REITs which will also be positive for performance.
