Hardship policy

INFORMATION - PLEASE READ

Please read this information carefully prior to completing the hardship statutory declaration and application form.

The Australian Securities & Investments Commission (ASIC) may grant operators of property funds the ability to provide an early withdrawal mechanism for investors where there is hardship, in preference to all other investors.

The Dexus Wholesale Australian Property Fund and the Dexus Australian Property Fund (the Funds) have relief from ASIC to pay withdrawal requests received from investors who, in the reasonable opinion of the Responsible Entity, are suffering or likely to suffer hardship.

Investors that qualify for hardship may be able to access some or all of their investment. To make a withdrawal based on hardship, investors (a person) must meet one of the criteria prescribed by ASIC and there must be sufficient liquid assets available in the Fund. The categories where hardship relief may be permitted include:

- Severe financial hardship
- Unemployment
- Compassionate grounds
- Permanent incapacity

Accompanying documentation will be required to be submitted with a hardship request to support your claim.

Benefit amount

The minimum withdrawal amount is $1,000 (subject to change at our discretion). If a withdrawal request is received which would result in you holding less than the minimum account balance and your hardship withdrawal meets the ASIC criteria, we may redeem your entire investment.

The maximum withdrawal amount you can apply for through the hardship policy in any calendar year is the lesser of:

- the amount required as a result of the hardship; and
- $100,000.

You can make up to four hardship applications in any calendar year.

Indirect investors should contact their financial adviser, master trust or platform operator if they wish to make a withdrawal based on hardship.

Statutory declaration

To apply for the withdrawal of your investment through the hardship policy, you are required to sign the Statutory Declaration which is part of this document. The Statutory Declaration requires you to attest to the truth and accuracy of the information that you have provided. This document forms part of the evidence that we will review in deciding whether to approve your application.

Additional evidence

You must provide evidentiary documentation to support your application. The type of supporting documentation you may need to provide is dependent upon the hardship condition you are applying under, as outlined in this document.
